THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL MR. INTERNATIONAL RUBBER CONTEST

The Thirteenth Annual Mr. International Rubber Contest (MIR2010) promises to break new ground! Rubber clubs around the world are sending delegations to support their candidates at the annual celebration, with preliminary contests held in France, Germany, Italy, Canada and the United States. As part of the recent change in ownership, a new 65,000 sq. ft. venue and weekend schedule awaits the contestants and attendees.

Dates

November 6 - 8, 2009

Location

Chicago, Illinois, USA

Venues

The Center on Halsted is the 65,000 square foot community center devoted to service the LGBT community in the City of Chicago. For MIR2010, we have reserved the entire third floor of this state of the art facility including the gymnasium, black box theater, dressing rooms, and reception hall.

EVENT HISTORY

In 1997, Roger Hickey and David Boyer created the Mr. International Rubber contest to support the fledgling US rubber scene. Since that time the contest has seen steady progress to become a truly international event and contest weekend. In 2009 the contest was purchased by two members of the rubber community under a new entity, MIR Contest, LLC. MIR2010 is the first contest under the new ownership and will honor the traditions of Mr. International Rubber while working to expand the offerings of this fun filled weekend.

EXPECTATIONS OF THE WINNER

- The winner of the title MIR2010 is required to attend and judge the Mr. International Rubber 2011 contest, to be held in Chicago approximately one year following their victory.
- As the winner of the title, their primary responsibility is to 1) promote the international rubber fetish scene, 2) promote the Mr. International Rubber contest as part of the international rubber scene, and 3) to promote and acknowledge the companies that have provided prizes and sponsorships to the Mr. International Rubber title during their title year.
- As part of their sponsorship agreement, MIR2010 sponsors are afforded priority scheduling for MIR2010 to appear at their events. This agreement does not require or obligate MIR2010 to place an undue financial burden on himself to attend those events. Each appearance request requires negotiation of terms for both the requestor and MIR2010 to reach mutually suitable arrangements.
- The winner of the title MIR2010 is strongly encouraged to attend additional leather and rubber fetish events whenever possible to be visible in the community. Additionally he should promote the international rubber scene and the Mr. International Rubber Contest, as well as promoting and acknowledging the companies that have provided the prizes that accompany his title. He should use his best judgment as to which events will benefit him and the title the most.
- MIR2010 should maintain regular and frequent contact with Mr. International Rubber event staff to assist in planning and promotion and to provide regular updates to the rubber community on their activities via the Rubberblog on www.MIRubber.com

Prize Package

The prize package for winners is different each year and dependant on donations from vendors and supporters of Mr. International Rubber. The preliminary prize package will be listed on www.MIRubber.com in the weeks prior to the contest, but will not be finalized until shortly before the contest.

The first installment is made immediately following the contest and consists of half of the monetary prize. The second installment is awarded upon successful completion of the title year and returning to participate in the selection of his successor. Contestants with interpreters are allowed one additional back stage assistant, only if the interpreter is not assisting with costume changes. Back stage assistants are required to be present for pre-contest rehearsal and walk through.

Contestants must notify the Contestant Wrangler of their back stage assistant at the Friday evening contestant meeting. The Contestant Wrangler will arrange a badge for the backstage assistant.

FRATERNIZATION WITH JUDGES

Mr. International Rubber contestants are encouraged to get to know the judges and interact with them. However, contestants shall be prohibited from having private meetings or engaging in sexual activity or scene play with the judges prior to the announcement of the results.

To avoid accidental violation of this policy, and possible removal from the contest, all contestants and judges should display their identification badges at all times.

CONTEST JUDGING METHOD

A panel of seven (7) judges representing leaders in the international rubber/latex and gay community score the Mr. International Rubber contestants. Judging is made in four (4) categories using a combined Olympic scoring system in the categories and points outlined below. The contest also involves one audience choice component which is added to the judge's scores and is non-olympic in nature.

Interview – (maximum 1000 points, up to 200 points per judge, Olympic scoring)

Each contestant will meet with the judging panel offstage and in private, prior to the contest to answer questions about the contestant's interest in rubber, BDSM, fetishes, knowledge, willingness and ability to represent the title. Interviews will last no less than 10 minutes but no more than 25.

Rubber Image – (maximum 500 points, up to 100 points per judge, Olympic scoring)

Each contestant will appear onstage and be introduced to the audience by the Emcee using information provided on the completed contestant application. Judging in this category is based on how you present yourself as a "rubberman."

Onstage Question – (maximum 500 points, up to 100 points per judge, Olympic scoring)

Each contestant will answer a question onstage. Judging in this category is based on how well you can command the audience's attention as well as how well you respond to the question.

Mystery Bag - (maximum 500 points, up to 100 points per judge, Olympic)

Each contestant will come onstage to select one mystery bag from local Chicago shopping destinations. Inside each bag are several "non-fetish" items, which the contestant must find some creative use for in a fetish scene. Judging in this category is based on a contestant's creativity, knowledge of safe play practices and spontaneity.

Audience Vote - (Maximum 100 points total, spread across all contestants, non-Olympic)

Audience members will assist in the selection of Mr. International Rubber by casting a ballot for the individual they believe should be MIR2010. Points will be awarded based on the percentage of the total votes that each contestant receives. (IE: Contestant "A" receives 50 votes out of 200 total cast and thus receives 25 additional points from the Audience Vote.)

REGARDING OLYMPIC SCORING

In the Olympic scoring system, the high and low score for each contestant is discarded in each category of competition. The remaining scores are totaled for each contestant. At the conclusion of judged categories, points from the audience vote are added to the judges' total for the final score. The contestant whose aggregate score is highest will be declared the winner. The contestants whose scores are second and third highest will be declared the first and second runner-up respectively.

In the event of a tie under the total scoring system, the Audience Vote category will be eliminated and results re-tabulated to determine a winner.

In the event there are only four contestants, only a winner and first runner up will be declared and have prizes awarded.

In the event of any dispute regarding the tallying of the contest, MIR Contest LLC shall make the final determination of the winner.
